Human Resource Manager

Dear Sir/Madam,

I would be so glad to join your organization and start my career with, since I believe my knowledge and skills would be an added advantage to your organization.

I have been reading for the Cisco Certified Network Associate (Routing & Switching) Certification and Smart Grids: Electricity for the Future(edX) also I had been learning Telecommunication, Power related modules as requirement to my undergraduate degree programme.

Also having a previous experience of undergoing internship in Etisalat Lanka (Private) Limited and Lanka Electricity Company (Private) Limited in my degree programme, working as a document officer and my certification in Human Resource Management would be an added advantage to sync and be socialized to your organization environment.

And more over I have a good knowledge with Laravel (PHP Framework) along with Bootstrap and MySQL which I spent on more time these days on purpose of my Final Project.

I have included my Resume for your analysis with this letter and I am so pleased to join and work along with your organization. Expecting a favorable respond from you.

Thank You!

Sincerely,
Kabilarajah Y.
